Metalcasters of Minnesota Spring Luncheon

Metalcasters of Minnesota is pleased to announce Minneapolis Mayor Jacob Frey as our keynote speaker for the upcoming MCM Spring Luncheon.

Jacob Frey is the current Mayor of Minneapolis and a member of the Minnesota DFL Party. He began his political career when he was elected to Minneapolis' City Council representing the 3rd Ward. In 2011, after the tornado strike in North Minneapolis, he provided legal services to tenants who lost their homes. In 2012, the City of Minneapolis honored him for his civil rights work with the Martin Luther King, Jr. Award.

Born in Oakton, VA in 1981. Jacob graduated from The College of William & Mary in Virginia in 2004 with a degree in Government. He completed his Juris Doctor Degree at Villanova, graduating cum laude in 2009, before coming to Minneapolis to work for Faegre & Benson (now Faegre Baker Daniels), after falling in love with the city while participating in the Twin Cities Marathon.
